

Miss Smaill recites Canadian poetry, gossip & folk-lore with the double success which is the crown of such an enterprise; first she interests the hearer in the subject itself, & second ~~for~~ <sup>she</sup> gives a promise of ability to express other kinds of literature.
a desire in her hearer

E. K. Westton?