

Gads Hill Place,
Bigham by Rochester, Kent.

5, Hyde Park Place, London W

Monday 19th April 1870

Dear Fie Cole

I have been hard at work all day on the post time, and have not leisure to acknowledge the receipt, the day before yesterday, of your note containing such good news of Fieles; and to announce of my undivided best regards and affection.

We have been doing wonderfully well No 1 of Helen's brook. It has been very fine out-tripped by one of its predecessors.

Georgia has just come home from her school: to whom my best regards are. Her love affectionate friend
Martha Dickson