

Rochester. Nov. 23. 1868.

My dear Sir:

I am just home from Boston and am obliged by your note of the 18th. I will write to Pres^t Loomis to day and give him a date when I can deliver a lecture in Lewisburgh. I receive many invitations, some from respectable sources and others not. and I feel more secure from imposition when I have assurances such as you give me of your friend Dr Loomis. Truly yours, with gr^d respect
