

Dear Young

At your service.

Command me. But be sure to arrange it with Miss Bates so I'll run into no conflicts.
As a poet I have to be particularly careful about being taken care of.

Of course you understand I am coming to Wellesley only because I swore I would never come there again after what you told me. We must have discipline.

We'll go right on from where

Ever yours

Bob Frost
