Dear Mr Law -

Many thanks for your kind letter of the 16th. I am very sorry to learn that Mr Law has been ill
- and away from home too which makes it worse: but I trust he is now quite recovered. I shall feel very pleased to hear of his recovery as he has been ill.

Also my walk has me to Brighton or near by: and I hear that it would be impossible for me to cross the Atlantic for some time to come.

We've had a perfectly abominable August month of continuous rain & floods - now it's as cold as New England in winter and we're starving a death!

Yours sincerely

Rudyard Kipling
